

4 REDEMPTION

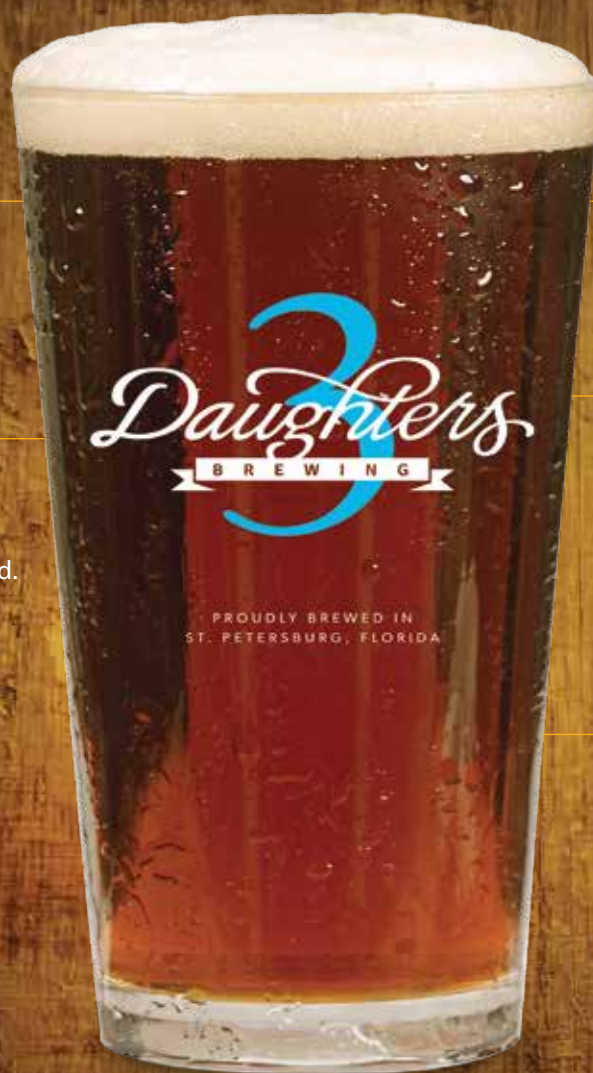

BARREL AGED QUAD ALE

ABV – 11.0%

(Alcohol by Volume)
A medium-range ABV
would be 3.5-5.5%.

Style

The Quad is a very rich, complex
very strong Belgian Ale.
It is a deep coppery-brown color
with a persistent tan-colored head.
This is a big, complex beer
with 11.0% ABV.

IBU – 22

(International Bitter Units)

Taste

This beer is moderately malty and sweet on the palate. Finish is medium-dry to sweet. Aged in bourbon casks for 90 days,
this offering combines the woodiness
of whiskey barrels with the sweetness and dark fruit notes with a hint of vanilla. Overall, a rich, smooth taste.

Comparable brews

Few beers can compare to this one.
The Belgian is smooth, with a soft,
yet spicy alcohol flavor and moderate in intensity.
